JANUARY 2017

PASTOR'S THOUGHTS

Are you Feeding Yourself?

"Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither. Whatever he does prospers."

Psalm 1:1-3

This month I want to hit on something that is really important in my opinion. As your pastor I appreciate it when you make the time to come to Bible study and services on Sunday. I have a great passion to teach and preach the Word of God. But if your spiritual life is only being fed when you come to these services you are starving yourself. If your only exposure to Gods word is when you come to church then you are missing a very important element to the growth of your faith and the growth of the church.

I know that many Christians live day in and day out coming to church and hear what the pastor says and goes home and never once opens their bible to review what they said. Some may come to church and never even bring their bible to follow along. How can we truly hear from God if we keep his Word closed and put away? I've always made time to get into God's word daily. Even when I was in college then when I was pastoring and working full time. It's too important not too. Being consistent about a time to read each day is much more important than which time of day you pick. I want to challenge each person to make it a habit to get into God's word each day in 2017.

Wayne Cordeiro writes in his book Divine Mentor, "If you will develop a daily self-feeding program from the bible and allow yourself to be daily, hourly mentored by God's Holy Spirit your life will undergo an unprecedented change for the better." George Muller put it this way, "The vigor of our spiritual life will be in exact proportion to the place held by the Bible in our life and thoughts." If you are not getting into God's word daily you are losing the necessary nutrients to sustain your soul in this life. A lot of Christians are biblically illiterate because they don't get into the Word of God on their own. A lot of Christians are empty, weak, and struggling because they are not feeding on the scriptures. The scriptures answer the questions of the soul and satisfy the emptiness of the heart. The truth and reality is we need to hear from God more then he needs to hear from us.

The American Journal of Medicine a few years ago published a highly revealing conclusion to a study: The health of twenty-first-century America will no longer be determined by what people can get doctors to do for them but by what doctors can get people to do for themselves. My job as a shepherd is to get you to develop a daily self-feeding program in the Bible. I am going to keep pushing this church that each person MUST be in the Word daily. Your own spiritual life depends on it and so does the church. Jesus said this

"If you continue in My word, then you are truly disciples of Mine." (John 8:31) The fruitfulness of following Jesus comes from continuing in His word. This means we must have daily exposure to it.

Proverbs 8:34 tells us "Blessed is the man who listens to me, watching daily at my doors, waiting at my doorway." Jesus told us to pray in Matthew 6:11 for our daily bread. Today stay near the door of scripture and receive from his Word what he wants to teach you. Jesus said we needed daily bread not "Sunday" bread. Don't wait until Sunday stay by the door and receive daily. God wants to speak but if you are not waiting at the door you won't hear. All the way back during the Reigns of King Uzziah and Jeroboam II around 792-750 Amos wrote these words a problem that seems is relevant to today "The days are coming declares the Lord when I will send a famine through the land not a famine of food or thirst for water but a famine of hearing the words of the Lord. Men will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east searching for the word of the Lord but they will not find it." (Amos 8:11-12) Today I think we have induced a self famine by forgetting God's words. The average American has on average 3 bibles per household but all they do is sit there waiting for the power to awaken in their lives. Men are staggering around wondering why they are not being fulfilled when they come and hear the sermon on Sunday. You won't survive as a disciple of Jesus only hearing His Word once a week or maybe twice. Bible study is very important and Sunday is very important and I continue to challenge you to be here in attendance coming ready to learn and hear from God but you also need to find daily time to learn and hear from God on your own. Why?

Because Daily time with Jesus causes a metamorphose of authenticity.

The world is going to be changed by men and women who sit daily at the feet of Jesus. There is too much at stake in your life to not get in God's Word each day. We have decisions to make, steps to take, hardships and struggles to overcome, questions needing answered, people to deal with, souls to save. Outward growth begins with inward growth. Inward growth comes from being a tree planted by streams of water, the living water, which is Jesus Christ. And the tree is the man who mediates on the word of the Lord day and night.

> "When your words came, I ate them they were my joy and my heart's delight, for I bear your name Lord God Almighty." ~Jeremiah 15:16

With Love in Christ, Pastor Jamie

Nazarene Missions

I want to thank Jess and Jason for completing the lesson in December. 2017 will begin with a new challenge. As NMI President my primary job is to call the meeting to order and to end them with prayer. Starting in January I will not be able to attend Wednesday night because of my school schedule. I am praying someone steps up to help with the meetings and people to present the missionary lessons. I have several ideas but make things difficult not being present. Ideas will be carefully and prayerfully considered. If you feel the nudge to volunteer to start the meetings or volunteer to teach a lesson let me know. I have been making a list and if you turn me down please have an idea of a replacement.

January and The New Year has a bad reputation. People begin with their new year's resolutions with eager anticipation. Most of us will break their resolution before the month is up which sets us up for discouragement. I know because I have been battling my weight for as long as I can remember. I do have a resolution suggestion you can add to your list. Budget $5 per month for the Samaritan's Purse ministry and you will have $60 to spread the Good News to a hurting world. The great thing about this resolution is you can spend it throughout the year and not feel bad. I love to purchase things after holidays. Last Christmas I found six Christmas puzzles for 10¢ and now they are on their way to some child who needs Christ. If the Lord is willing I will continue to give you advice on making wise and timely purchases. January is a great time for deals on hats, gloves, and scarves. I am confident you will do your best to share the word of God to people around the world.

There's a loving letter I mean to send, There is a visit I mean to pay There's a careless habit I hope to mend, When I get the time someday.

There's a dusty Bible I mean to read There's an hour I'll keep to pray I'll turn each dream to a golden deed, When I get the time someday.

I'll carry flowers to the sick and sad I'll seek for those who stray You can trace my steps by hearts made glad, When I get the time someday.

So somebody, thought, so somebody said, But wasn't it just a crime? Too busy with less important things They never did get the time.
